Delmore Days Music Festival

The 3rd Annual Delmore Days will be held June 26th on the lawn Athens State University Founders Hall. The festival honors Limestone County's own famous Delmore Brothers (Rabon and Alton), two of the biggest music stars in the 1930s. The gates open at 9:00 AM. Admission is $7.00 and children under 12 years are $2.00.

The festival will feature all day live entertainment, arts and crafts, food vendors and other items. The event is planned as an "old-fashioned trade day". Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy the tribute to the Delmore Brothers.

The Brothers were on the Grand Old Opry in Nashville, TN from 1930 to 1937. Some of their honors include: posthumous induction into the Alabama Music Hall of Fame in 1989, Country Music Association International Division (CMAID) Hall of Fame (in Germany), 2000; the Country Music Association Hall of Fame (Nashville), 2001; and the Grammy Hall of Fame for "Blues Stay Away From Me," 2007. They also received the Artists of the 20th Century Award from the CMAID, 2000.

Delmore family members will be present to talk with you and tell you about their father and uncle. An exhibit of Delmore Family memorabilia is on display at the Athens Visitors Center and Athens State University.

2010 Entertainment Schedule is outstanding and is listed below.

Athens on the Square Car Show

Bad weather has postponed the annual Car Show until June 5th. Appropriately 900 antique vehicles are expected at this year's event. Organizers of the group say this will be the largest show yet. Come early and spend the day in downtown Athens! You will find delicious food at local restaurants as well as street vendors. Be sure and check out the local stores and see what specials they have for all the car show folks. For more information call Bland at 256-603-1227.

It's Dog Gone Festival Time!

Does your dog look like you? Do you think he's "Top Dog"? If so, grab your BFF (Best Furry Friend) and head to Ardmore's 1st Annual Dog Gone Festival for a full day of activities and treats for the entire family. Hosted by the Ardmore AL/TN Chamber of Commerce, this festival offers dog activities and contests (sorry cat lovers). All dogs must be well socialized, get along with humans and other dogs of all sizes and must be on a leash at all time. Admission is free. Activity tickets are $.25 each or five for $1.00.

Dress your dog in its finest and enter it in the dog parade and other contests. Ribbons will be given for best dressed dog, best singing dog, best dog trick, dog and master look a like contest and the most obedient dog. A grand prize "Top Dog" award will be awarded for the best of the best. Each participant will receive a gift. An entry fee will be charged. Pet owners will also enjoy the pet demonstrations scheduled throughout the day including HEMSI rescue dogs.

Bring your children and let them enjoy the dog bag toss, dog collar pitch, ring a dog, doggie pad cake walk and much more. There will also be a hotdog eating contest for those who love the all American hotdog.

A portion of the proceeds goes to the Ardmore Abandoned Animal Fund.

Grab your tennis shoes - let's walk!

It's time to bring out the walking shoes and enjoy the beauty and history of Athens, AL.

The annual June Historic Walking Tours will be June 5, 12, 19, & 26. Walkers will meet at the Athens Visitors Center meeting room (located on at the corner of Beaty and Market Streets by the duck pond) at 9:45 AM. The walks will begin promptly at 10:00 AM and will last approximately one hour.

Experience the culture and history of Athens by taking one of the walks.

Tour 1: Athens Square with guide Buzz Estes;

Tour 2: Beaty Historic District, Washington Street and Old Town Cemetery with guide Billy Ward;

Tour 3: Athens State University, Big Spring Memorial Park and College Inn with guide William Pepper;

Tour 4 - City Cemetery with guides from Hobbs Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans

Tour 5 - Alabama Veterans Museum with guide Jim Patteson.

Local residents serving as guides will share personal remembrances and tall tales from the old days as well as the history of their respective walk.
